

- 19 -

ABSTRACT

A shielding assembly includes at least first and second elongate members and a shield movably mountable adjacent the shielding assembly. Each of the members are joinable together at a common point. The shield is movable in three dimensions relative to the shielding assembly so as to shield a user of the shielding assembly.